The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Continuation of 3. NOTE: The amended subject matter to the claim languages such as: "vacuum chucking part holds the electronic component at a position which covers straight lines substantially parallel to edges of the electronic component respectively and substantially mutually orthogonal to the positioning mark of the electronic component, said vacuum chucking part being located in a vicinity of the positioning mark and avoiding the positioning mark" (claim 1, lines 12-16; claim 15, lines 27-31; and claim 19, lines 23-27) has narrow the scope of the claims and which raise new issues that would require further consideration and/or search. Note that the rejected claims do not require the chucking device at a position which covers straight lines or is being located in a vicinity of position mark and voiding the position mark, etc.
